

Governor Ned Lamont 2021 Commencement Speech

Okay CSCU graduates, you've survived a year like no other and now it's commencement. You deserve a great commencement enjoy it, feast in it, and remember we love you, we want you to stay here in Connecticut. It's a state with amazing opportunities.

I hope you've got a running head start. I used to teach at Central Connecticut State. I don't know where you're graduating from but stay in Connecticut. We want you around.
