Message from the President of Three Rivers College Foundation

Dear Friends,

I am pleased to share with you the 2021–2022 Annual Report, which highlights the vital support in scholarship funds, program initiatives, workforce training opportunities and collaborative partnerships that help our students remain on track with their educational goals.

The College Foundation exists to advance the educational opportunities available at Three Rivers, including the oversight and stewardship of scholarship funds that benefit our students. Over the past year, the Foundation has awarded over $540,000 in scholarships, awards, laptops, tools, and resources for remote learning along with nursing uniforms, and other educational supplies critical to student success. This incredible support is made possible because of the dedicated board of directors and generosity of donors in our community. Donors like TRCC alumni, faculty, staff, community foundations, and corporate partners – all working together to support Three Rivers students and the college community.

EVERY gift is so important and very much appreciated. Thank you for your great support of our community college.

With best wishes,

Dear Friends,

Thank you to everyone who made yet another unconventional academic year a success. As Covid-19 lingered, the Three Rivers College Foundation maintained their strong commitment to assisting Three Rivers’ students on their educational journey as well as supporting program initiatives, student enrichment, faculty, and staff development.

Many of this year’s graduating class of 465 future nurses, medical assistants, bankers, sheet metal fabricators, builders, and more; received financial support from the Foundation during their educational journey at Three Rivers helping them to realize their educational and personal goals.

We are proud of the students we educate and the successes they have attained. We are grateful that so many of you joined us in providing vital support to ensure the 2021-2022 academic year was filled with enriching educational experiences.

Thank you for your generosity and for making the education of our community a priority.

Sincerely,

Mary Ellen Jukoski, Ed.D.

AHEPA

“Part of the acronym of AHEPA is education. Three Rivers is the place in Norwich for higher education and we support and cherish it. This scholarship money is giving back to the community and as Greek immigrants, we came to Norwich with no education and skills and became successful. Part of our heritage is to remember our ancestors who came here way back and contributed to Norwich and now it’s our chance to do the same.”

Investing in our community

We rely on the support of our community to help aid students on their academic journey.

Paul Jones Trust
Opportunities are made available to TRCC Nursing students through the generosity of the Paul Jones Trust. This past year, students participated in a partnership with Hartford HealthCare and their mobile health van providing care to underserved populations in our community. In addition, students participated in a Norwich Chamber of Commerce Healthy Living Festival. Students provided blood pressure screenings, education about cardiovascular health, wellness management of individuals partaking in exercise activities, education and pre-screening for the seasonal flu vaccination, and mammogram and prostate cancer screening.

Funds also supported the creation of three informational videos used to clarify the difference between the role of a Registered Nurse, Certified Nursing Assistant, and Medical Assistant. The videos can be found at www.threerivers.edu/nursing.

Workforce Education & Training
Funding from Chelsea Groton Bank and the Community Foundation of Eastern CT, helped off-set the costs for students to enroll in various workforce training programs. Three Rivers Workforce Education offers short-term, non-credit State and National certification training programs that prepare our students for good-paying Connecticut jobs.

Chris is the Chief Financial Officer/Principal at Collins & Jewell Company, Inc., and retired from the Three Rivers College Foundation Board of Directors after 10 years. His leadership has brought many important opportunities to the Board and College, particularly in the field of manufacturing. He is a key stakeholder in the vital manufacturing pipeline he helped establish in our community through TRCC’s state-of-the-art Manufacturing Apprenticeship Center at Grasso Tech. He is a man of action, consistently showing up for the Three Rivers College Foundation maintaining a guiding focus on what best serves our students. He understands that Three River's students are our friends and neighbors looking for an opportunity to build a brighter future through education.

During the golf reception, Foundation Board President, Dr. Mark Tramontozzi, announced that TRCC nursing student Samantha Venturo, was awarded the Christopher Jewell Service Scholarship. This one-time scholarship in honor of Chris Jewell rewards a student who values education and is committed to their community, and service to others. In addition, board member and Senator Cathy Osten bestowed an official Citation from the General Assembly honoring his exemplary service to the board.

If you were to stop by Collins & Jewell on a Friday, you will encounter a sea of Hawaiian shirts – a testament to Chris’s unique ability to combine successful business with a fun-loving work environment. The board of directors presented Chris with a Hawaiian shirt to add to his wardrobe at the Golf Classic Dinner Reception.
A sea of lawn signs greeted the class of 2022 when they arrived at Commencement on May 25.

Board President, Dr. Mark Tramontozzi congratulated graduates on behalf of the Foundation and shared the following sentiment, "The Foundation wants to send you each on your journey with a reminder of your achievement today. Display the signs proudly at your home – remember all that you have accomplished thus far and that you have a special journey ahead of you. The Three Rivers College Foundation is excited to see how each of you will strengthen our shared community of Southeastern Connecticut."

The DeVaughn’s shared this inspirational message regarding a Three River’s education, “Having both been involved with education, health care and human services, establishing this scholarship helps us perpetuate a major, life-long interest which we hold dear to our hearts. We are pleased to establish an endowed scholarship to assist deserving, under-represented, African American/Black students in achieving their educational goals.”

Both the DeVaughn’s come from a background of giving back to the community through volunteer work and charitable contributions. They believe in the transformative power of education. Through this award, they have committed to enriching the forward progress of the local Norwich community through higher education.

Amber De Souza '22

Three Rivers is honored to have resilient and persistent students — like Amber!
Amber De Souza, a 2022 graduate and Foundation Scholarship Recipient, earned her A.S. in General Studies and was selected as the student speaker at Three Rivers’ commencement on May 25, 2022.

Amber told fellow graduates she stood there not only because of the love she has for her children, but also because of a great loss: Her youngest brother died from lymphoma a few years ago at age 18, inspiring her to pursue a nursing career.

Like many TRCC students, when COVID-19 hit, Amber’s household became one with three virtual students. She woke up hours before her kids and stayed awake hours past their bedtime to maintain her own schooling at Three Rivers Community College. “The days were full, exhausting and yet purposeful.”

Amber made education one of her main priorities, completing her first degree with a 4.0 GPA in General Studies in December. In January 2022, she scored an Advanced Placement rank on her TEAS exam, and this past spring, worked mindfully to fulfill her final nursing corequisites. On April 8, 2022, she was accepted into the Three Rivers Community College Nursing Program, Nursing - CT -CCNP, for Fall 2022.

“The Foundation’s scholarship support has been instrumental in my ongoing journey to become a nurse, and I am extremely proud to be a part of the Three Rivers community where such support exists.”

“Filled with determination to achieve my aspirations, and with two little boys looking up to me, I rose to the occasion. I knew that because of them, nothing is impossible.”

- Amber De Souza
